

Jack Auction Group

Exotic/Small Animal Sale

Consignor Information and Terms

1. Small animals must be boxed with wire on one side or caged BEFORE they arrive.
2. Well presented animals WILL BRING MORE MONEY! Take time to make nice boxes and come organized.
3. Boxes must have sturdy bottoms, and no wire bottoms. Sellers, please keep in mind the humane treatment of these animals when boxing/crating them - don't overcrowd them or put them in cages where they can injure themselves.
4. Make sure the animals have had water before they arrive. If there is no water in their crate, they will go virtually all day and into the evening without water. At many of these auctions, the Animal Protection Services of Saskatchewan may have representatives watching for animals in distress and may take action against the consignor of distressed animals.
5. Boxes & crates must be labeled with what and how many are inside BEFORE they arrive.
6. Boxes & crates sell with the animals/birds inside, and boxes will not be opened when sold.
7. Large crates / hutches will stay outside and will be sold after the small boxes inside.
8. The following will be refused:
 - *Weak boxes or boxes with wet bottoms
 - *Boxes with wire bottoms
 - *Boxes with overcrowded animals/birds
